52 Weeks with Jesus

Jesus Christ is the most influential human to ever walk the earth. We've heard and seen so many depictions of Him that we think we know Him better than we actually do. If we took the time to really look at Him, we might be surprised at what we'd find.

In 52 Weeks with Jesus, author and pastor James Merritt leads you on a transformational journey as he shares what he's learned over a lifetime of studying Jesus's life and ministry. As you join Dr. Merritt on this journey, you will come to know and encounter Jesus in new and surprising ways and be inspired anew to embrace His invitation, "Come, follow Me."

Filled with practical applications and surprising truths, this book will help you more ably answer that ancient question that's as timely today as when it was first posed: "Who do you say that I am?"

Pastoral Resources

The Shepherd as Preacher

Scripture holds a simple declaration that sets forth every pastor's highest priority: "Preach the Word."

When you consider all that God desires to accomplish through preaching, it becomes apparent why it's such a big deal. It's God's main means of feeding, comforting, correcting, and protecting His people—as well as pointing unbelievers to Christ.

Such an enormous responsibility deserves a pastor's best. In The Shepherd as Preacher, you'll find the best encouragement and guidance available on how you can preach God's Word God's way.

With John MacArthur and other outstanding Bible teachers, you'll survey the essentials every minister needs to know, including...

- the focus and purpose of biblical preaching
- the character of a faithful preacher
- the keys to effective preaching
- how to preach in the Spirit's power

Yours is a high and holy privilege—one with incredible potential to change lives. This book will equip you to fulfill that calling with excellence.

John MacArthur is the pastor-teacher of Grace Community Church in Sun Valley, California; president of The Master's College & Seminary; and featured teacher for the Grace to You media ministry, which reaches millions worldwide. John has also written many bestselling books, including The Gospel According to Jesus. He and his wife, Patricia, have 4 married children and 15 grandchildren.

“Not only are you a preacher of God's Word, you are also called to be its guardian. You have been given a sacred trust—that of taking God's truth and making sure it gets safely into the hands of the next generation. It's a guardianship for which you will answer to God.”

—John MacArthur

Conquer

Devil. Great deceiver. Evil one. Father of lies. Satan.

Many names. One enemy. And whether you realize it or not, you are on a spiritual battlefield with this enemy every day. How do you prepare to defend yourself?

In Conquer, Michael Youssef says you first need to know everything you can about your enemy. What are Satan's strengths? What are his weaknesses? How does he like to attack? When is he most likely to attack? Are there areas of your life where you are vulnerable and he seems to control the battlefield?

Only when you know your enemy inside and out can you plan and carry out a specific counterattack to defeat him. The final victory will be Christ's, of course. That's a promise from God. But as a Christian, you can actively take part in resisting the devil...and watching him flee.

Michael Youssef received theological degrees from Moore College in Australia, Fuller Theological Seminary in California, and a PhD in social anthropology from Emory University. He traveled around the world on behalf of the Haggai Institute, speaking to thousands of leaders. In 1987 he founded The Church of the Apostles in Atlanta, Georgia, which served as a platform for Leading the Way's international television and radio ministry, where Dr. Youssef is heard daily by millions at home and in over 190 countries.

How to Forgive...When You Don't Feel Like It

When someone hurts us, our natural response is to strike back. Rather than let go, we cling to our rocks of resentment, our boulders of bitterness. The result? We struggle under the weight of unforgiveness.

Though we know God has called us to forgive others, we find ourselves asking:

- What if it hurts too much to forgive?
- What if the other person isn't sorry?
- How can I let someone off the hook for doing something so wrong?

Biblical counselor June Hunt has been there herself, enabling her to speak from experience as she offers biblical help and hope with heartfelt compassion. If you've been pinned down under a landslide of pain, here's how to find true freedom through forgiveness.

June Hunt is the founder of Hope for the Heart, a worldwide biblical counseling ministry that provides numerous resources for people seeking help. She hosts a live, two-hour call-in counseling program called Hope in the Night, and is the author of Counseling Through Your Bible Handbook and How to Handle Your Emotions.

Consolation

A Widow's Journey

Have you recently lost your husband? Are there days when you feel so terribly alone—and that no one else could possibly understand?

Author Gayle Roper understands. As a recent widow herself, Gayle writes:

“So who am I now that there’s only one place at the table... one pillow with a head dent, one damp towel after a shower? There’s only one toothbrush in the holder. The seat is never left up anymore.

I can still write Mrs. in front of my name, but I’m no longer in a marriage relationship. You need two people for a marriage and there’s only me.”

Is there only you? Then join Gayle as she draws on her emotions during the loss of her beloved husband, Chuck, and offers you a compassionate devotional to encourage you through your darkest days. Gayle knows a widow's pain is deep. But she also knows God's love is deeper still. And it's in His love you'll find your deepest comfort.

Gayle Roper is the award-winning author of more than 40 books whose life was turned upside down when her much-loved husband, Chuck, died. One way she dealt with her pain was to write it. She lives in Southeast Pennsylvania in the middle of Amish country.

“I learned to imagine a future, not the one I wanted, no; but one that could make my life worthwhile. I could hope for purpose, for laughter, for satisfaction...to discover new and unexpected possibilities—or I could choose to stay in my gray world of grief.”

The Amish Clockmaker

From bestselling authors Mindy Starns Clark and Susan Meissner, The Amish Clockmaker (Book 3 in the Men of Lancaster County series) explores the men of an Amish community in Lancaster County, how their Amish beliefs play out in their unique roles, and the women who change their lives.

Newlyweds Matthew and Amanda Zook are just settling into their roles as managers of Zook Feed and Tack when an old but beautifully ornate clock is discovered during a store remodel. After examining the clock, they discover a secret that indicates it belonged to the former owner of the building, the Amish clockmaker Clayton Raber, who, fifty years earlier, was arrested for the murder of his wife.

The shocking elegance of Raber's clock, the love poems about his wife found inside, and the fact that the clock had been hidden, compel Matthew—against Amanda's wishes—to seek out Raber. Matthew believes he is following God's will in this. But is the old man still alive? Why did he create something so obviously against Amish standards? Why was the clock hidden? More importantly, is it possible the love poems will prove that this Amish clockmaker loved his wife to the community that never believed his claim of innocence?

A timeless novel of truth, commitment, and the power of enduring love, where secrets of the past give way to hope for the future.

Mindy Starns Clark is the author of many books, which include the popular Smart Chick Mysteries, Whispers of the Bayou, Shadows of Lancaster County, and Under the Cajun Moon. In addition, Mindy's plays and musicals have been featured in schools and churches across the United States.

Susan Meissner is a multi-published author, speaker, and writing workshop leader with a background in community journalism. Her novels include The Shape of Mercy, named by Publishers Weekly as one of the 100 Best Novels of 2008 and a Carol Award winner. She is a pastor's wife and the mother of four young adults. When she's not writing novels, Susan writes small group curriculum for her San Diego church.

The Last Heiress

When Amanda Dunn sets sail from England for Wilmington, North Carolina, she hopes to somehow restore shipments of raw materials for her family's textile mills, which have been severely disrupted by the American Civil War. Though there is not much one individual can do, the wealthy young woman feels she must try, as her mother and hundreds of employees at Dunn Textiles are dependent on Southern cotton.

When Amanda meets Nathaniel Cooper, her desire to conduct business and quickly return to England changes. Though captivated by one another, neither is fully aware of the other's true nature.

Nathaniel, who on the outside appears to be a poor but hardworking merchant, is actually a secret Yankee sympathizer who will stop at almost nothing to bring about freedom for those who live under subjugation, even when that involves questionable judgment. And Amanda's wealth is made possible by underpaid workers living in slums around the mills, not much different than American slavery.

Can these two earnest souls find the best in one another rather than focus on what could tear them apart? And though they both believe they are on God's path, how will their decisions affect those around them?

From bestselling Christian fiction author Sally John comes the second book in a series featuring new beginnings and unexpected romance.

Welcome to the Casa de Vida—eleven quaint bungalows located three blocks from the Pacific Ocean in tiny Seaside Village, California. Owner Liv McAlister never advertises vacancies beyond a small hand-lettered sign out front, preferring to trust that God will send the right tenant at just the right time. And He always does.

Heidi Hathaway's life has been turned upside down. After an accident leaves her injured, unable to work, and incapable of negotiating the stairs in her multilevel oceanfront condo, she leases her home and moves into a cozy little cottage in the charming garden complex where her friend Piper lives. There she finds so much more than a place to rest and recover.

Piper Keyes knows Jared is not coming back from Afghanistan. After making it through the fifth anniversary of his death, she wonders if she's at last ready to get on with life. She gingerly explores new avenues—photography, cooking, and buying her own boutique—and learns to open her heart again.

The most comforting thing about living at the Casa is that the women there become each other's mentors and confidantes, learning from their own mistakes and arriving at new, healed places in their lives.

Sally John is the bestselling author of 18 novels, including the popular series The Other Way Home, The Beach House, and In a Heartbeat. A three-time finalist for the Christy Award and former teacher, Sally lives in Southern California with her husband Tim. A Kid's Guide to the Armor of God

As one of the country's most respected evangelical leaders, pastor and author Tony Evans challenges "tweens" (ages 8 to 12) to explore what the armor of God is all about. He understands that Christian kids want to be stronger, more confident, and skilled at living an exciting God-centered life, and so he presents the unvarnished truth.

Tony Evans gives kids a plan for success by explaining:

- Scripture reveals who's behind the world's traps and snares and how to resist him.
- God offers all Christians a powerful suit of armor and mighty weapons.
- The suit includes a belt of truth and helmet of salvation to wear and shield of faith to carry into the battle.
- When every piece of God's armor is worn correctly, the enemy is defeated and Christians finish victorious.

By learning how to dress in the armor God provides, preteens are able to speak the truth, stand firm in the faith, and spread the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Dr. Tony Evans is founder and senior pastor of the 8500-member Oak Cliff Bible Fellowship in Dallas, founder and president of The Urban Alternative, chaplain of the NBA's Dallas Mavericks, and author of Destiny and Victory in Spiritual Warfare. His radio broadcast, The Alternative with Dr. Tony Evans, can be heard on more than 500 US outlets daily and in more than 40 countries.

Reflections at First Light

Al and Ron Lindner, recognized leaders in the sport fishing industry and members of the National Freshwater Fishing Hall of Fame, share stories from their decades-long careers on the water and the life-changing truths God has taught them along the way.

See how God “scooped them up into the gentle net of His grace,” and find inspiring reminders that God can...

- open doors when you see only dead ends
- equip you with everything you need
- fill you with peace when everything goes south
- give you your own life-changing story to share

These short reflections will help you sense that God is with you, too, at first light on the water.

Al Lindner is the winner of two Bassmaster events and recipient of the Samuel C. Johnson Fishing Journalist of the Year award. He and his brother, Ron, invented the Lindy Rig, founded Lindy Tackle Company, and are driving forces behind Lindner Media Productions.

Ron Lindner has written many books and articles, produced radio shows, and fished countless tournaments. He and his brother, Al, created (and later sold) In-Fisherman, the parent company for the sport fishing magazine and nationally syndicated radio and television shows of the same name.
