

Rebecca's Choice

By Jerry Eicher

Book Group Discussion Questions

1. How does John handle his fears? For those who have read the first two books in The Adams County Trilogy, describe how John's attitudes have changed since his accident.
2. Why do you think Rachel's brother's opinions about the inheritance had no effect on her?
3. Do you think the exuberance with which Ruth wrote the article for The Budget is typical of the average person writing about a personal cause?
4. What reasons did Manny Troyer give for never marrying? Do you think those reasons were genuine? Justifiable?
5. Did Isaac, as John's father, do everything he should have to protect John and Rebecca from the accusation—that Rebecca is marrying John for money—noted in the card John received?
6. What do you think drove Rachel to such extremes in her quest for the inheritance?
7. Do you think Manny Troyer should have contacted Emma during their latter years?
8. Was John being loyal to Rebecca when he threatened to leave his faith and join the Mennonites?
9. Do you think Rebecca's wedding day was all she had hoped for?
10. Did Rachel change her ways in the end?