Introduction

HELLO, PARENTS, and thank you for using this book to help teach your kids the true meaning of Christmas. This book focuses on how Jesus became a gift for us, and how we can be a gift to others.

Jesus was the greatest Storyteller of all time. We want your kids to be begging for bedtime, so we suggest reading this story to your children and then using the QR code provided so they can watch a bonus video on your device. There are also many other Stories from the Storyteller™ you can enjoy together!

To scan the QR code at the end of each chapter:

1

Open the camera on your phone or tablet.

2

Aim it at the QR code.

3

Tap the banner that appears.

Kam shot out of bed like a rocket and yelled, “It’s Christmas Eve!” waking up the whole house from their deep sleep. J2, Kelsey, Kylar, Bunny, and Tyson followed Kam downstairs to count their Christmas Eve presents.

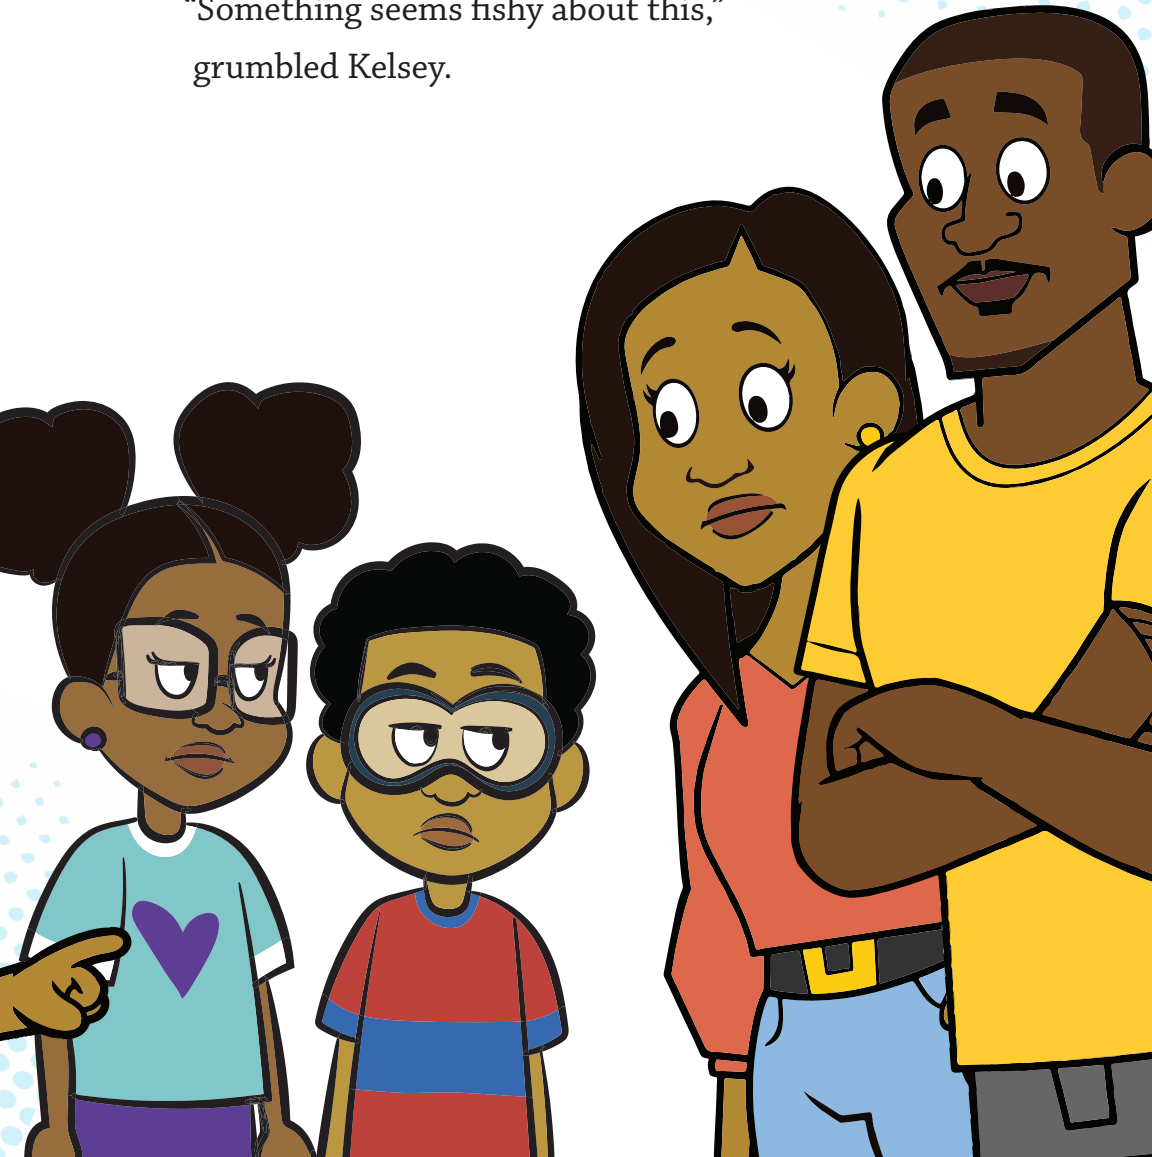

When the kids discovered their presents, they were all shocked to find that Kam had far more gifts than anyone else.

“Why does Kam have more presents than we do?”
J2 asked.

“Yeah!” Bunny added.

“Something seems fishy about this,” grumbled Kelsey.

But there was no time to investigate, as the Evans family headed out to Simeon and Anna's Magic Tree Farm to pick out a Christmas tree.

The owners greeted them, "Hello, Evans family! We have a very special tree picked out just for you."

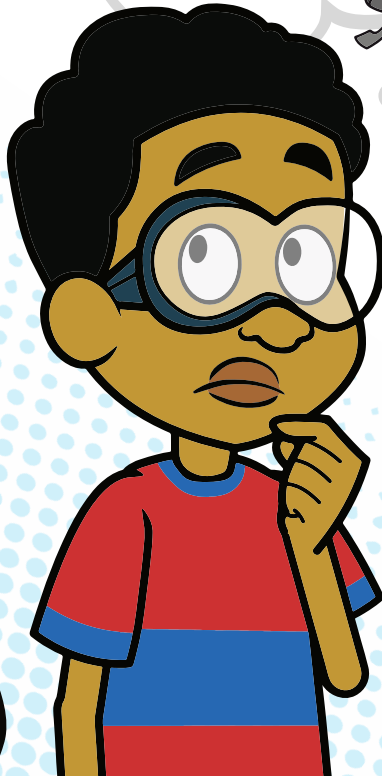

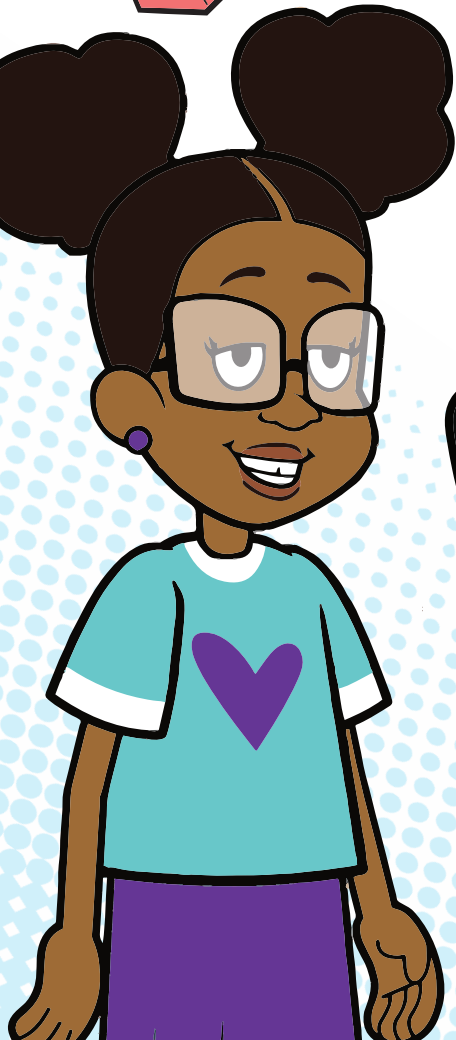

Anna and Simeon presented a full and beautiful tree they'd set aside.

"It's perfect!" Kelsey exclaimed.

Anna turned to the kids and asked, “So, what does Christmas mean to you?”

“Toys!” Bunny and Kylar shouted.

“New video games!” answered J2.

“I want a new Craft Cutter X-3000,” Kelsey responded.

Anna turned to Kam, “What does Christmas mean to you?”

“Giving! Christmas is about giving,” Kam answered confidently.

GIVING!

“Excellent answer, Kam,” Anna replied.

“You get to place the Christmas star on top of the tree this year.”
